

The Cottage at Hill Top

Luxury self-catering accommodation in
The Lake District National Park

From 1960 to 1967
Hill Top was the last home of
Arthur Ransome
1884 - 1967
journalist, storyteller, sailor, fisherman and author of
"Swallows and Amazons"

A stunning property in a breathtaking location

The Cottage at Hill Top

Luxury self-catering accommodation in
The Lake District National Park

Created from a substantial part of historic Hill Top, a former 'long house' dating from 1680 and once the home of Arthur Ransome.

Two gorgeous double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. Open-plan lounge and dining-kitchen. Large purpose-built pavilion games room with snooker table and table tennis. Set in extensive private grounds comprising beautiful gardens, paddocks and woodland.

Magnificent rural setting with unparalleled panoramic views of the mountains across the beautiful Rusland Valley, yet only a mile and a half from Newby Bridge and Lake Windermere.

Wonderful walks from The Cottage and a good choice of pubs and restaurants within a five minute drive.

The last home of Arthur Ransome author of
"Swallows and Amazons"

Stephen & Janine Sykes

Hill Top, Ealinghearth, Haverthwaite, Cumbria LA12 8JR Tel: 01539 531452

Email: stephen@hilltopvista.com or visit our website at www.hilltopvista.com